

The PBC is co-sponsoring another seminar with the SBP on Friday 14th February. The topic is Managing Crises in Emerging Markets and the main speaker is the Deputy Director of the IMF who has served in a number of emerging markets. He will share his experience and there will be opportunity for the PBC and other panel members (Khurram Husain of Dawn and Sakib Sherani, the economist) to air their views on how Pakistan is coping under the present IMF Programme. It promises to be an interesting discussion. Space is limited to 15. Please RSVP Mr. Manzoor Hussain at the SBP – details below to avoid disappointment:
